

RATTLESDEN COMMUNITY COUNCIL
Equal Opportunities Policy and Code of Practice

Policy Statement

Rattlesden Community Council is committed to treating all people equally and with respect regardless of their age, race, nationality, ethnicity, religion or beliefs, disability, , marriage or civil partnership, sex, sexual orientation, or gender including gender reassignment.

The Community Council supports the relevant legislation in England & Wales and will work to ensure that no person protected by this legislation is discriminated against unlawfully whilst under the auspices of the Community Council.

The Community Council will regularly keep under review its activities and practices to ensure equality of opportunity are being supported.

Code of Conduct

- 1 People will be treated with dignity and respect regardless of the group to which they belong
- 2 Peoples views and feelings will be valued and respected, and language that people find offensive will not be permitted
- 3 Incidents of harassment that are reported to the Community Council will be taken seriously and the Community Council will undertake to investigate all such complaints quickly, impartially and thoroughly.

This Policy was approved by Rattlesden Community Council on-----

Policy will be reviewed on-----
